

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE TENTH CIRCUIT

TIMOTHY L. BLIXSETH, an individual,

Plaintiff - Appellant,

v.

CUSHMAN & WAKEFIELD OF
COLORADO, INC., et al.,

Defendants - Appellees.

No. 15-1375

ORDER

On November 17, 2015, Attorney Phillip H. Stillman filed an entry of appearance in the above-captioned case, which triggered his obligation to comply with 10th Cir. R. 46.2(A). That rule requires all attorneys who file a case or enter an appearance in this court to apply for admission to this court's bar, if the attorney is not already admitted.

On November 18, 2015, we notified Mr. Stillman of the requirement that he comply with Rule 46.2(A). On December 21, 2015, Mr. Stillman was notified again. Since that time, we have contacted Mr. Stillman via email and telephone numerous times, both to remind him of his obligation to apply for admission to this court's bar, and provide him with the information and assistance necessary to do so. Despite these efforts, Mr. Stillman has failed to apply for admission to the bar of this court; he remains in violation of 10th Cir. R. 46.2(A).

On or before February 22, 2015, Mr. Stillman is ordered to show cause why he should not be removed as counsel for the appellant, and why he should not be disciplined by this court for his failure to take the action necessary to comply with our local rules in the nearly three months since he was first notified of this deficiency.

Entered for the Court,

ELISABETH A. SHUMAKER, Clerk

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Chris Wolpert', with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

by: Chris Wolpert
Chief Deputy Clerk